

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES
THIS NOTICE DESCRIBE HOW HEALTH INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN ACCESS THIS INFORMATION.
PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY

PLEASE NOTE:

State and Federal laws require us to maintain the privacy of your health information and to inform you about our privacy practices by providing you with this Notice. We must follow the privacy practices as described below. This Notice will take effect – July 01, 2013 – and will remain in effect until it is amended or replaced by us.

It is our right to change our privacy practices provided the law permits the changes. Before we make a significant change, this Notice will be amended to reflect the change and we will make the new notice available upon request. We reserve the right to make any changes in our privacy practices and the new terms of our Notice effective for all health information maintained, created and/or received by us before the date the changes were made.

You may request a copy of our Notice of Privacy Practices at any time by contacting our Privacy Officer. Information on contacting us can be found at the end of this notice.

OUR COMMITMENT TO YOUR PRIVACY

We understand that information about you and your health care is personal. We create a record of the care and services you receive from Florida Pediatric Associates, LLC (FPA) and are committed to protecting that information about you. We are required by law to 1) Make sure health information that identifies you is kept private. 2) Give you this Notice of our privacy practices. 3) Follow the terms of Notice that is currently in effect.

ROUTINE USE AND DISCLOSURE OF YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION (PHI)

(Please note: for the purpose of this document the terms “you” will pertain to the patient and/or legal guardian if appropriate)

TREATMENT: Our practice may use your PHI to treat you. For example, we may ask you to have laboratory tests, and we may use the results to help us reach a diagnosis. We might use your PHI in order to write a prescription for you. Many people who work in our practice – including, but not limited to, our doctors and nurses – may use or disclose your PHI in order to treat you or to assist others in your treatment.

PAYMENT: Our practice may use and disclose your PHI in order to bill and collect payment for the services and items you may receive from us. For example, we may contact your health insurer to certify that you are eligible for benefits (and for what range of benefits), and we may provide your insurer with the details regarding your treatment to determine if your insurer will cover, or pay, your treatment. We also may use and disclose your PHI to obtain payment from third parties that may be responsible for such costs, such as family members. Also, we may use your PHI to bill you directly for services and items.

HEALTH CARE OPERATIONS: Our practice may use and disclose your PHI to operate our business. As examples of the ways in which we may do this, our practice may use your PHI to evaluate the quality of care you receive from us, or to conduct cost-management and business planning activities for our practice. Example of personnel who may have access to this information include but are not limited to, our medical records staff, outside health or management reviewer and individuals performing similar activities.

APPOINTMENT REMINDERS: Our practice may use and disclose your PHI to contact you and remind you of an appointment.

TREATMENT OPTIONS: Our practice may use and disclose your PHI to inform you of potential treatment options or alternatives; or communicate with you regarding the scheduling, ordering or results of test.

HEALTH RELATED BENEFITS AND SERVICES: Most uses and disclosures of PHI for marketing and disclosures that constitute sale of protected health information require authorization.

RELEASE OF INFORMATION TO FAMILY & FRIENDS: Our practice may release your PHI to a friend or family member that is involved in your care, or who assists in taking care of your child. For example, a parent or guardian may ask that a babysitter or aunt take their child to the doctor for treatment. In this example, this person would have access to the child's medical information; however this person must be listed on the consent for treatment form in the patient's chart and be able to present valid picture ID at the time they present to our office. Additionally, a parent may not speak English fluently and may have an interpreter assist them at the appointment, this person would have access to the child's medical information.

OTHER: Uses and disclosures not described in this NPP will be made only authorization from you, the individual.

USE AND DISCLOSURE OF YOUR PHI IN SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES
DISCLOSURES REQUIRED BY LAW: Our practice will use and disclose your PHI when we are required to do so by federal, state or local law, such as for law enforcement purposes, suspected abuse or neglect reporting, health oversights or adults, funeral arrangements, organ donation public health purpose or in the case of a medical emergency.

PUBLIC HEALTH: Our practice may disclose your PHI to public health authorities that are authorized by law to collect information for the purpose of:

- Maintaining vital records, such as birth and deaths
- Reporting child abuse or neglect
- Preventing or controlling disease, injury or disability
- Notifying a person regarding potential exposure to a communicable disease
- Notifying a person regarding a potential risk for spreading or contracting a disease or condition
- Reporting reactions to drugs or problems with products or devices
- Notifying individuals if a product or device they may be using has been recalled

HEALTH OVERSIGHT ACTIVITIES: Our practice may disclose your PHI to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law. Oversight activities can include, for example, investigations, inspections, audits, surveys, licensure and disciplinary actions; civil, administrative, and criminal procedures or actions; or other activities necessary for the government to monitor government programs, compliance with civil rights laws and the health care system in general.

LAWSUIT OR SIMILAR PROCEEDING: Our practice may use and disclose your PHI in response to a court or administrative order, if you are involved in a lawsuit or similar proceeding. We also may disclose your PHI in response to a discovery request, subpoena, or other lawful process by another party involved in the dispute.

NATIONAL SECURITY: The health information of Armed Forces personnel may be disclosed to military authorities under certain circumstances. If the information is required for lawful intelligence, counterintelligence or other national security activities, we may disclose it to authorized federal officials.

YOUR PRIVACY RIGHTS AS OUR PATIENT

You have the following rights regarding the PHI we maintain about you:

CONFIDENTIAL COMMUNICATIONS: You have the right to request that we communicate with you about your health and related issues in a particular manner or at a certain location. For instance, you may ask that we contact you at home, rather than work. In order to request a type of confidential communication, you must make a written request specifying the request method of contact, or the location where you wish to be contacted. At our discretion, we will accommodate all reasonable requests. You are not required to give a reason for your request.

ACCESS: Upon written request, you have the right to inspect and get copies of your health information (and that of an individual for whom you are a legal guardian). There will be some limited exceptions. If you wish to examine your health information, you will need to complete and submit the completed request form. You may contact our Privacy Officer for a copy of this form. Once approved an appointment can be made to review your records, during the process of review no records can be removed from the office. Copies, if requested, will be $1.00 per page for the first 25 pages and $0.25 per page for every page over 25. The individual office may choose to waive this fee at the discretion of the physician. We will try to accommodate all request, however if we deny your request to inspect and/or copy your record you may request a written reason for the denial.

AMENDMENT: You may ask us to amend your health information if you believe it is inaccurate or incomplete, and you may request that the amendment be in effect for as long as it is maintained by our practice. Your request for an amendment, must be in writing (the appropriate form can be requested from office staff) and must include an explanation of the information should be amended. We will deny your request if you fail to submit your request with supporting explanation in writing. Also, we may deny your request if you ask us to amend information that is not created by us, or is not part of the medical information maintained by us, or if we find that the information we possess is accurate and complete. If we deny your request you will receive the denial in writing; you have a right to appeal the decision – but it must be done in writing.

RESTRICTIONS: You have the right to request that we restrict the uses or disclosure of your health information for treatment, payment of healthcare operations purposes. We are not required to comply with any other requests for restrictions, but if we do, we will abide by the written agreement (except in the case of a medical emergency). Additionally, you have a right to request that we place additional restrictions on our use of disclosure of your health information to a health plan. Specifically you have the right to request that we restrict the use or disclosure of health information to health plan (insurance company) for purposes of payment or operations, If you pay for the service out-of-pocket IN FULL at the time the services are provided. This request MUST be made in writing (the appropriate form can be requested from office staff). This requirement does not apply to disclosures for treatment, such as disclosures to a referring physician for continuation of care. This office is required to comply with any requests that limit disclosures to a health plan when the service has been paid out-of-pocket and in full by the patient. Such restrictions do not override disclosures that are otherwise required by law. Additionally if initial payment for services, that have a request for restriction applied to them, is returned or invalid; our office will make a good faith attempt to collect payment – if this is unsuccessful we have the right to then submit a claim for these services to the health plan.

ACCOUNTING OF DISCLOSURES: All of our patients have the right to request an accounting of all disclosures made. All requests for an accounting of disclosures must be submitted in writing (the appropriate form can be requested from office staff) and include: a time period, that must not exceed 6 years prior to the date of the request and/or de dated prior to April 14, 2003 – as information prior to that date was not required to be tracked. The first list you request within a 12 – month period is free of charge. We may charge you for any additional lists requested within the same 12 – month period. We will notify you of the costs involved with any additional requests prior to their completion, allowing you to withdraw your request before you incur any costs.

BREACH NOTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS: In the event that unsecured protected information about you is “breached”, we will notify you of the situation and any steps you should take to protect yourself against harm due to the breach. We will inform The Department of Health Services and take any other steps that are required by law.

RIGHT TO FILE A COMPLAINT: If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with our practice and/or with Secretary of Department of Health and Human Services. To file a complaint with our practice, please submit it in writing and to the attention of the Privacy Officer (the appropriate form can be requested from office staff). We support your right to the privacy of your information and will not retaliate in any way if you choose to file a complaint with us or with the Department of Health and Human Services.

RIGHT TO PAPER COPY OF THIS NOTICE: You are entitled to receive a paper copy of our Notice of Privacy Practice. To obtain a paper copy of this Notice, contact our Privacy Office in writing.

MINORS AND PERSONS WITH LEGAL GUARDIANS: Minors and certain disable adults are entitled to the privacy protection of their health information. Because, by law, they cannot make health decisions for themselves, a parent or guardian can make medical decision on their behalf. Therefore parents and guardians can authorize the use and release of PHI and also hold all rights listed in this notice or the behalf of the minor child of disabled adult. Under certain situations defined by law, minors can make independent healthcare decisions without parent or guardian knowledge or consent. In those situations, the minor may hold all rights listed in this notice. If the minor chooses to inform the parent or guardian, then all privacy rights regarding PHI may transfer to the parent or guardian. There are also certain situations where access, use or release of a minor's PHI may occur without the consent of the parent or guardian, i.e. when the health or safety of the minor is in danger PHI is necessary to protect the minor.

We reserve the right to revise or amend this notice of Privacy Practices. Any revision or amendment to this notice will be effective for all of your records that we have created or maintained in the past, and for any we may create or maintain in the future. Our practice will post a copy of our current Notice in our offices in a visible location, and you may request a copy of our most current Notice at any time.
